GEHR SAYS HE

WILL NOT

ENJOIN DOLE

"This talk of my enjoining the Governor through the courts to prevent his granting the Kohala ditch license is nonsense," said A. C. Gehr this morning. "I can't enjoin the Governor if I would. I am not a lawyer, but I know enough to prevent my committing any such impossible thing as suggested in connection with the Governor's granting the Kohala water license. I shall at all times protect my interests, but there is no danger of my enjoining Governor Dole through the courts of Hawaii."

SUES HIS NEPHEW.

Francis C. Brewster sues his nephew J. W. W. Brewster for $5000 damages for alleged defamatory statements, alleging that his nephew had remarked that his uncle had stolen $50 from his trousers' pocket.

Defendant is said to be a New York millionaire carriage manufacturer; son; his engagement to Miss Melaine Afong was recently announced. Defendant is alleged to have stated, on numerous occasions and to various people including F. J. Church and Palmer Lewis, that his uncle had taken money from his pocket in the Clifton hotel.

Plaintiff praying that a writ of attachment issue. Judge De Holt yesterday issued the writ. E. A. Douthett and A. Lindsay represent the uncle.

HONOIPU IN 'FRISCO.

The San Francisco Chronicle of September 8 contains the following regarding the Honouipu:

The schooner Honouipu, twenty-eight days from Honolulu, Hawaii, arrived outside yesterday with a cargo of sugar, but was carried by the tides close to the beach south of the Cliff House. The tug Relief went out to assist late in the afternoon to render assistance. The vessel is said to have been aground at Honouipu on her last trip to Hawaii.

Constantinople, Sept. 18.—The Vail of Beirut who was removed to satisfy the United States, has been made Vail of Bursa.

Kastoria is a town which is situated on the western shore of a lake bearing the same name in the center of the disturbed section in Macedonia. The town is only thirty miles from Monastir, the capital of the district, and the scene of the recent massacres. Within the past few weeks the district around Kastoria has been the scene of photographs, massacres and outrages. The population of the town and district was mostly Bulgarian, Albanian and Greek. The people were noted as agriculturists and the town of Kastoria had great trade with Monastir and Salonica. Several towns within a few miles of Kastoria have been destroyed by the Turks recently.

HOPES FOR BREWER.

According to the San Francisco papers received by the Gaelic the report of the delayed passage of the ship Juteopolis has made the hopes of speculators on the Helen Brewer rise to some degree. The Chronicle of September 9 says:

There was heavy speculation yesterday on the overdue American ship Helen Brewer, 187 days out from Sourabaya, on the northern coast of Java, for Delaware breakwater with sugar. M. A. Newell, the reinsurance broker, claimed that there was no accounting for the heavy play at this time, but it, no doubt, indicates the faith that is generally held among shipping men regarding the Brewer, particularly since the report was received of the long delay occasioned by the ship Juteopolis in calms in the Carolines. A remarkably long time has elapsed since the Brewer's departure from Java, and not a word has been received concerning her. Up to date, it is said over $200,000 has been placed by speculators on this one ship.

POLO TEAM TO COAST

At a meeting of the polo men yesterday afternoon it was decided to send a team to the Monterey tournament. This decision has come about as a direct result of the offer of W. G. Irwin to furnish free transportation for the polo team. The team to be sent will consist of the very best players in the country and both men and horses will be decided on by competitive play. Practice is to be continued up to Christmas time and a team will be picked at about that time. Two other teams will also be chosen to play the first team. The polo tournament takes place in March and will be under the auspices of the Polo Pony and the Racing Association. It is possible that a team will come from the East to compete, but the bulk of the teams will be from California. Hawaii's team will not be sent to California until just before the opening of the tournament although the horses will be shipped several months in advance.

The polo season will be opened in Honolulu at Kapiolani Park on Saturday, October 3. Fred Baldwin of Maui and Chas. Rice of Kauai are expected in Honolulu just prior to that date and these men will spend two weeks in practice at Kapiolani Park together with picked players from the Honolulu team.
